

NC Get Covered

POWERED BY THE BIG TENT COALITION

Taxes and the Affordable Care Act
New resources available to consumers and
In-Person Assisters

New and emerging efforts

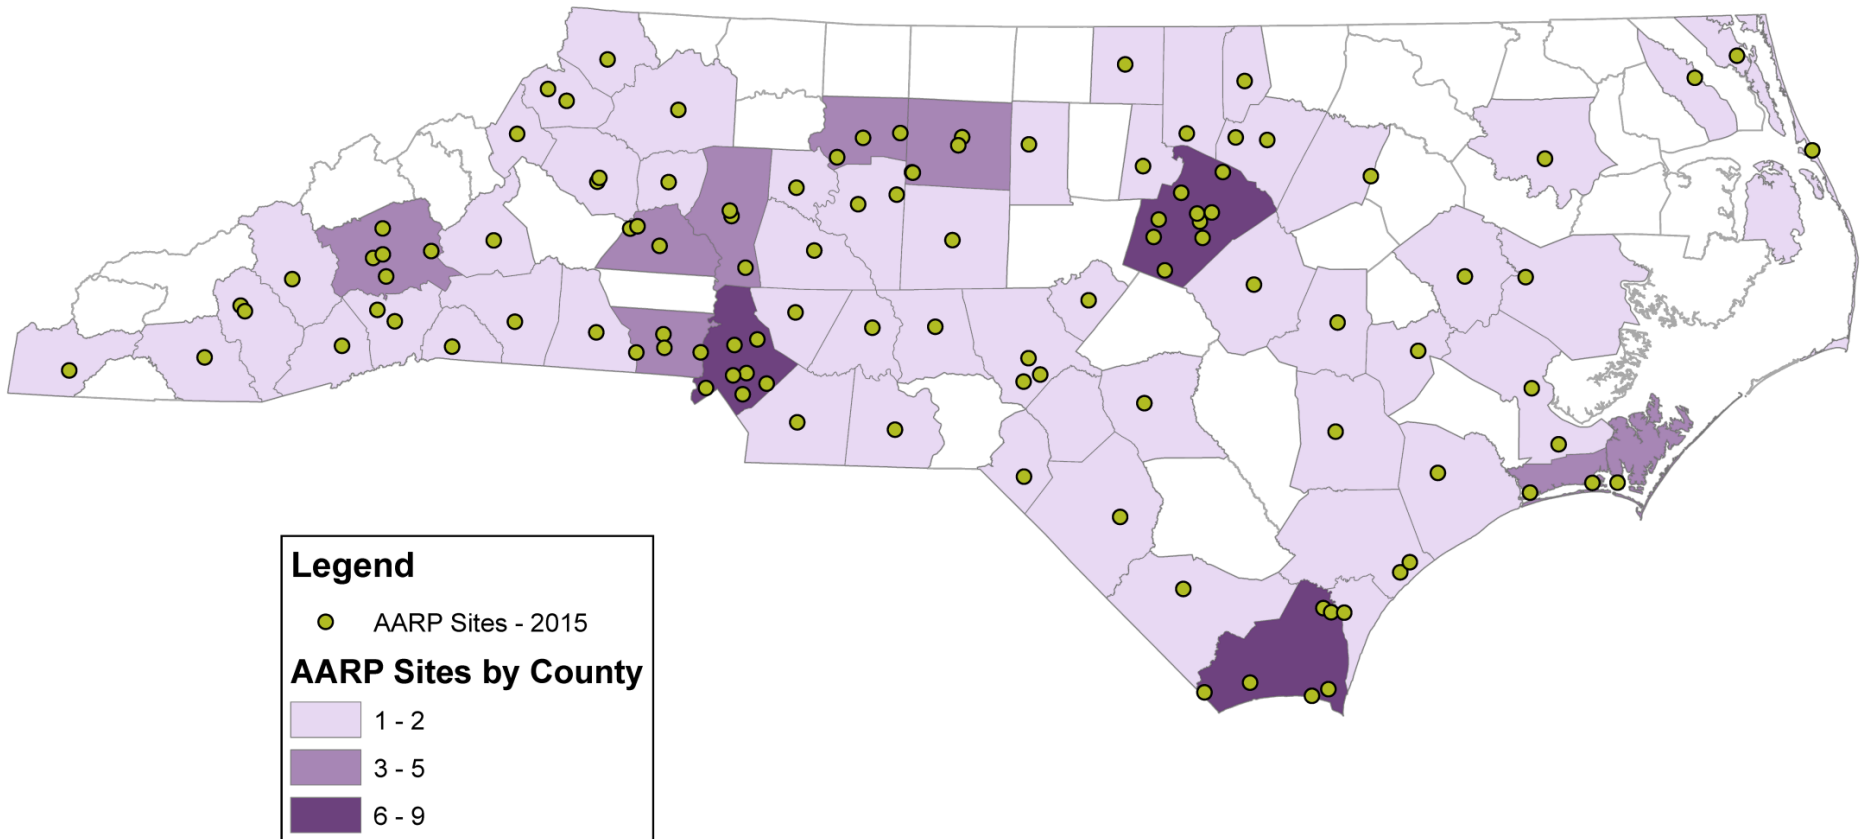

- Collaborative effort with NC 211 on tax-filing
 - Directory listing of VITA/AARP/TBB
- Beware the ‘free’ tax filing services
- Updates to NC Get Covered website
 - Consumer-facing side
 - IPA side (new resources to review and use)
- Resources to put in front of tax-preparers

MDC's value statements regarding tax-prep

- Service should always be truly free to low- and moderate-income NC residents
 - No additional cost for e-filing or for ACA forms
- Literacy – a tax-filing service should be written around the 8th grade reading level
- Services should not be advertising credit-cards and other financial products unless they promote saving
- A consumer should have a similar experience between self-serve and counselor-assisted (no additional complexity)

AARP tax sites

What was your health coverage status in 2014?

I enrolled in a plan through the Federal Health Insurance Marketplace and received financial assistance

What was your health coverage status in 2014?

I had health insurance coverage,
but not through healthcare.gov

What was your health coverage status in 2014?

I was uninsured
for all or part of 2014.

New resources on NCGC

Knowledge Resource Center

Search Resources

Resource type ▼

Start date ▼

End date ▼

County ▼

You have arrived at the one-stop shop for information and resources essential to the work of in-person assisters and community partners of the NC Get Covered initiative of The Big Tent Coalition.

Right now, you can search our extensive set of resources including template pre-screening forms for appointments, PowerPoint presentations for outreach events, fact-sheets, videos, and other resources.

Soon, you will be able to connect with your fellow in-person assisters using a searchable county-by-county directory, and browse Success Stories.

If you can't find something here, please email us at webmaster@ncgetcovered.org and we will respond as soon as possible.